General information about the workshop:

- Registration: $140 per person, $120 for VMIHA members. (Become a member today! Visit www.vashonheritage.org/membership.html for information.)
- Photographers of all levels and ages – beginners to professionals, shooting film or digital – are encouraged to participate.
- Workshop will take place rain or shine – dress for the weather! Participants will meet at the museum, form carpools, and spend two days shooting photos at locations around the Island. Bring sack lunches.
- In addition to field photography and composition techniques, the workshop will include instruction and critiques related to O.S. Van Olinda's photographs documenting Island life a century ago.
- Prior to attending the workshop, participants are encouraged to view the exhibit Island Home: The Vashon Photographs of O.S. Van Olinda at the Vashon Maury Island Heritage Museum (10105 SW Bank Road, open Wednesday, Saturday & Sunday 1-4pm), or view Van Olinda's work online at <http://content.lib.washington.edu/vanolindaweb/index.html>
- Workshop participants are also encouraged to attend the free presentation "Van Olinda, A Century Later: Insights from the Curator," a slide presentation by Ray Pfortner on Thursday August 26th at 7pm at the Land Trust Building (10014 SW Bank Road).
- All workshop participants will be invited to submit photographs shot during the workshop for an upcoming juried exhibit at the Island Heritage Museum.
